

NCAA Eligibility Center Raising Fee

July 24, 2008

Please advise high school student-athletes that effective September 1, the new fee to register with the NCAA Eligibility Center will be $60. High school student-athletes in the Class of 2009 are advised to register with the Eligibility Center prior to September 1 to take advantage of the current domestic student rate of $50. The NCAA Eligibility Center (formerly the Initial Eligibility Clearinghouse) is an organization that works with the NCAA to determine a student's eligibility for athletics participation in his or her first year of college enrollment. Students who want to participate in college sports at an NCAA college or university must register with the Eligibility Center. The Eligibility Center staff follows NCAA bylaws and regulations in analyzing and processing a student's high school academic records, ACT or SAT scores and key information about amateurism participation to determine the student's initial eligibility.
